Juror: Michael Rose

Michael Rose is an art historian, gallerist, and appraiser based in Southern New England. Michael currently serves as the Gallery Manager at the historic Providence Art Club in Rhode Island, where he is responsible for all aspects of gallery administration, managing exhibitions in three unique gallery spaces. Prior to joining the Art Club Michael was a public relations and development professional. He has consulted on communications independently for a variety of arts-focused organizations including Bert Gallery, Water Fire Providence, the Art League of Rhode Island, and the Art Connection of Rhode Island.

Michael has worked with hundreds of artists and thousands of works of art. Through his work coordinating an ambitious exhibition schedule at one of the nation's oldest arts organization, he has gained valuable experience in gallery management. As a gallerist Michael has collaborated with numerous artists and organizations to successfully mount and publicize shows and events.
